Dear Judy and the Board of Directors of WRCF,

Thank you for generous contribution of $40,000 to HTAP. We really appreciate your support of our youth programs and our efforts to reach out to the community so we can all protect our children from human trafficking by educating and empowering them. By recognizing the signs of trafficking, kids can avoid situations which may lead to trafficking. By creating artwork that others can view, they can empower others to protect themselves as well.

We hope to be part of your Wildcats community in offering whatever we can to inform, educate and empower all to fight human trafficking. Thank you!

Sincerely,

Nola Theiss
Executive Director
